

Manheim Central Little League Refund Policy

If a registered player decides to withdraw from the MCLL, the player's parent(s) must notify the MCLL President or MCLL Player Agent in writing (email is acceptable).

If the notification of withdrawal from MCLL is received prior to the draft (for Minors level and up) or prior to the first scheduled practice (for Tball and Rookies), the player/parent will receive a full refund of the registration fee paid, less a $10 administrative fee. If the request for withdrawal from MCLL is received after the draft but prior to the second scheduled practice (for Minors level on up) or after the first scheduled practice but prior to the third scheduled practice (for Tball and Rookies), the player/parent will receive a refund of 50% of the registration fee paid, less a $10 administrative fee.

If a registered player moves out of the MCLL's boundaries prior to the first official game or if a player is deemed unable to play for the season due to an injury prior to the first official game, that player/parent will receive a full refund.

Any other refund requests must be submitted in writing and will be considered by the MCLL Board of Directors on a case by case basis.

Refund policy applies to registration fees only.

Any monies paid for fundraisers or fundraiser opt out fees will not be refunded.

Players who attend Winter workouts and then request to withdraw prior to the start of the Spring season will not be refunded. If a parent feels there is a special circumstance, a request for refund can be made to the league president and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
